

5 NOV 2024

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, JODHPUR

End Term Examination-2024

Semester: UG I & III

Subject: Sociology I (General Principles of Sociology)

Time- Three Hours

Marks-100

Instructions:

1. Attempt any five questions.
2. Follow the Examination Hall Protocols.

(Q1) (A) 'All intellectual fields are profoundly shaped by their social setting' In the context of statement briefly present the most important social conditions of nineteenth and twentieth century, conditions that were utmost significant in the development of sociology.

(B) Write a short note on the following:

- (i) Sociological imagination- Wright Mill
- (ii) Sociology of everyday life.

(Marks-12+8=20)

(Q2) (A) A sociologist studies teen suicide in upper middle-class households. She hypothesizes that the number of working parents is positively related to probability of teen suicide. She suspects that the amount of parental supervision may be an intervening variable. Prepare a questionnaire with 8 questions (both open ended and closed ended), state the sampling method, research objective for the field research in the above context.

(B) What are the differences between:

- (i) Accommodation and Assimilation
- (ii) In group and out group

(Marks 12+8=20)

(Q.3) (A) Biological inequalities no matter how small, provide the foundation upon which structures of social inequalities are built. Critically analyze the statement with the help of example of caste and race-based stratification present in the society.

(B) Identify and explain the form of social mobility in the following:

(i) Mr. Ram working as a clerk in Jodhpur Development Authority clears Indian Civil Services Examination in 2015.

(ii) Mrs. Sunita Maheswari joined Delhi Public School as a mathematics teacher. She was earlier working in Maheswari Secondary School, Jodhpur as a Maths teacher.

(Marks -12+8=20)