

8 MAY 2024

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, JODHPUR
End Term Examination April-May – 2024
Semester: UG X Semester (Criminal Law Hons.)
Subject: Laws Relating to Cyber Crimes

Marks:100

Time: Three Hours

Instructions:

1. Answer any five questions.
2. Support your answers with relevant statutory provisions and case laws.

Q.1). X Production House is an online media house dedicated to delivering facts and ground reality truth. They believed in the spirit of the Constitution and ran one segment on awareness of fundamental rights and other Constitutional values. During their news segments, they often dissect the policies of the State and critically evaluate their actions to make them answerable to the public. The digital media gained the attention of the viewers and within a short period gained millions of subscribers. Their reach didn't go unnoticed by the State. The following chain of events took place till the revocation of their licence and account taken down by the State:

- i) A show cause notice was sent to the media house for their segment on 'exposing the government' claiming it to be a cause of the problem.
- ii) Within 15 days another notice was sent claiming that an investigation was going on about the fake news circulated by the media house.
- iii) The digital media house was suspended till further notice on the grounds of 'public security'.

X production house approaches you. Draft the arguments for their defence. (Provisions and rules are similar to India)

[Marks 20]

Q.2). 'The framework of admissibility of electronic evidence in India needs to be revisited.' Do you agree?

[Marks 20]

Q.3). Comment whether the child pornography framework in India is holistic.

[Marks 20]

Q.4). 'Owing to the transnational nature of the cybercrime investigating it becomes difficult.' In light of the statement highlights how the Budapest Convention, 2000, is trying to resolve the problem.

[ Marks

20]

Q.5). Comment on how the Indian judiciary has developed the jurisprudence of online betting and gambling. Also, explain the precautions and mandates introduced by the Govt. of India to regulate online betting and gambling in the year 2023.

[Marks 20]

Q.6). Write brief notes on:

- a) Categorisations of cybercrime.
- b) 'actual knowledge' under section 79 of the IT Act,2000.
- c) Civil wrongs under the IT Act,2000.
- d) Obscenity.

[Marks 5*4=20]

