ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Expressing gratitude is the most satisfying part of writing a thesis. I thank the former Vice-Chancellor Dr. Poonam Saxena for her extended support. I would express my sincere gratitude to the current Vice- Chancellor Prof. (Dr) Harpreet Kaur for her guidance and understanding. I want to thank my esteemed supervisor Dr Rosmy Joan for her invaluable supervision, support and tutelage during the course of my PhD degree. She has greatly inspired me and helped me to know my real potential. Her support and endless guidance have been crucial in completing my thesis. Without her motivation, finishing my thesis would not have been possible. I'm grateful to the Joint Research Board for their patient listening and valuable feedback. My sincere thanks must also go to the Internal RAC team comprising Prof. (Dr) Anindya Sircar and Dr Rohan C Thomas for their enriching comments to improve my work.

Additionally, I would like to express gratitude to Dr Aradhana Nair for her treasured support and valuable suggestions, which influenced my research. There is no way I can express how much it meant to have Ms Pavithra R by my side during my PhD, and I'm eternally grateful for her moral support and encouragement.

I cannot forget my mother, who always cheered me up and walked by my side, without whom it would have been a tedious journey. I want to express my gratitude to my sister for her video calls with her baby that kept me calm and happy throughout the course. I thank everyone who has helped me get through this agonising period in the most positive way.
