

12 MAY 2023

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, JODHPUR

End Term Examination, May-2023

Semester: X

Subject: Affirmative Action & Distributive Justice (Constitutional Law Hons.)

TIME: Three Hours

Marks: 100

Instructions:

1. Attempt any Five questions.
2. Marks for each questions are indicated at the end of each question.
3. No bare acts and/or study materials are allowed.
4. No clarification will be sort during examination.

Q.1. 'While Prevailing Theory defines democracy in terms of electoral mechanism but the principle of just distribution of economic rights cannot be separated from democracy'. Discuss this statement. (Marks 20)

Q.2. Give some concrete suggestion for improving the effectivity of affirmative action strategy as operationalized in India. (Marks 20)

Q.3. Write Short Notes on the following:

- i. Giving voice to the voiceless.
- ii. Corporate Social Responsibility.

Q.4. Discuss the desirability of proving reservation at the promotion stage. (Marks 20)

Q.5. After the adoption of LPG strategy of economic development by India, will it be desirable to impose reservations on private sector? Discuss. (Marks 20)

Q.6. State has made the law that all the low paid jobs available in the private and public sectors will be first given to the local candidates who are the domicile of the state. Law defines low paid jobs which carry a salary of less than 30,000/- a month. This law has been challenged in the court, write the reasoned judgement. (Marks 20)

